Top of the FormItem 2.06 Material Impairments.

Late in the day on May 10, 2013, First BanCorp (the "Corporation"), the financial holding company of FirstBank Puerto Rico (the "Bank"), received notice from its counsel that the Motion for Summary Judgment filed by the Bank in a lawsuit in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York (the "Bankruptcy Court") in which Barclays Capital Inc. ("Barclays") was the adverse party had been denied and that Barclays' Motion for Summary Judgment had been granted. The Bank intends to appeal the Bankruptcy Court's decision denying its Motion for Summary Judgment.

The Bank had instituted this lawsuit against Barclays in December 2009 to recover securities (or the cash equivalent thereof) that were posted as collateral with Lehman Brothers, Inc. ("LBI") in connection with certain interest hedge agreements that the Bank had executed with Lehman Brothers Special Financing, Inc., an LBI subsidiary ("LBSF"), prior to LBI's bankruptcy. The collateral, consisting of mortgage backed securities (the "Pledged Securities") having an aggregate value of approximately $64 million, had been posted pursuant to an ISDA Master Agreement and Credit Support Annex executed with LBSF.

Since the second quarter of 2009, the Corporation classified the Pledged Securities as a non-performing asset with a book value of $64.5 million. Because of the Bankruptcy Court's May 10, 2013 decision, the Corporation has determined that it is probable that the asset has been impaired and will recognize a non-cash charge associated with the impairment of approximately $64.5 million, plus $2.1 million in accrued interest, during the second quarter of 2013 to write off the carrying value of the Pledged Securities. The Corporation does not anticipate that this impairment charge will result in future cash expenditures by the Corporation other than additional costs relating to the appeal of the Bankruptcy Court's decision.

In addition to this lawsuit, the Corporation continues to pursue its claim filed in the Bankruptcy Court in January 2009 in the proceedings under the Securities Investor Protection Act ("SIPA") with regard to LBI. The Corporation's claim was filed on the basis that under SIPA the Corporation was a "customer" that "entrusted" the Pledged Securities to LBI, the broker dealer, for safe keeping, and, accordingly, should be afforded protection thereunder. The Corporation's claim has not yet been resolved by the Bankruptcy Court.
